LAGO AWARDS DONATION TO YMCA

A Lago donation to the YMCA was presented recently by the company's vice president, Mr. L. Johnston, at the Y's headquarters in San Nicolas. Accepting on behalf of the youth organization was its president, Mr. F. Loonstra.

In recognition of the Y's contribution to the community, Lago, early this year, transferred the building in which the YMCA is housed to the youth organization.

Recently, the YMCA board installed a plaque in the building which reads: "Dedicated to the Youth of Aruba on the Occasion of the YMCA's Fifteenth Anniversary in Aruba on April 27, 1971. Lago Oil & Transport Co., Ltd."

REFINERY-WIDE GOOD HOUSEKEEPING IS AT 89%

During November, the refinery-wide percentage in the Good Housekeeping and Inspection Program remained at 89%. There are now 13 excellent, 18 good, 6 fair and 5 un-acceptable areas.

YMCA president F. Loonstra (l.) accepts Lago's donation from Vice-President L. Johnston, in the presence of other YMCA officials (r. to l.): Messrs B. S. Whitney (treasurer), J. Guastavino (secretary) and S. Tjaarda (program secretary). Flanking Mr. Johnston are Messrs. B. E. Nixon and R. P. Steele (YMCA Boardmember, extreme right).
